HEAD COACH

Coach Clark, in his third year as head coach and owning a 19-12 record for 1979 and 1980, brought a solid lacrosse reputation to SSC. He was starting center and face-off man four years at Washington College, winning all-Maryland recognitiion. He was also an end on the football team. After graduation, while interspersing four years of high school teaching and coaching with graduate school (M.A., Duke; Ph.D., University of North Carolina) he played club lacrosse including two years on the University of North Carolina club team.

Clark was a U.S. Marine Corps officer in World War II, serving four years and earning four battle stars and other decorations. He continued in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve until 1960 when he was retired with the rank of lieutenant colonel. Since World War II, except for two years as an organization and management analyst for the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission in Washington, Clark has taught and sometimes coached at several institutions, including the University System of Georgia, Washington College, University of Maryland, Monmouth College and Upper Iowa University where he served also as dean, vice president and acting president.

Coach Clark re-introduced lacrosse at Washington College in 1948 and coached through the 1956 season, compiling a 75-31 record. His 1954 team was Laurie Cox Division champion, equivalent of NCAA Division II today, and was ranked fifth among all teams playing collegiate lacrosse. Other teams ranked as high as ninth. Four of his players—Ray Wood, John Howard, Mickey DiMaggio and Joe Seivold—were named to the only all-America team of that day as first stringers. Clark was assistant coach for the South in 1951 and 1980, and head coach in 1953 when the South defeated the North 12-9 in the annual North-South All-Star game.

In the 1950s, Clark served four years on the Executive Board of the U.S. Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association, became vice president, then president (1955-1957) of the USILA. He is currently serving another two-year term on the executive board. He was chairman of the All-America Selection Committee, 1958-1960.

Clark currently is professor and chairman of the History and Political Science Department at SSC.

COACHING STAFF

LARRY REDDING served in 1980 as an assistant. He handled the jayvee team in its games. This year he will help principally with the defense. Twice co-captain of the Sea Gulls (1977, 1978), Larry was an outstanding defensive midfielder and team leader. Clark describes him as "knowledgeable, mature, serious, and a real competitor."

SCOTT ALLISON, a newcomer to Salisbury, is working on his M.A. degree. He doubles as an assistant soccer coach. A graduate of Roanoke College where he was an outstanding soccer and lacrosse player, he was a member of Roanoke's 1978 NCAA Division II-III national championship team. In 1980 he was assistant lacrosse coach at Washington College. Coach Clark says Scott comes highly recommended. "He will work with the attack and midfield. I think we are fortunate to have Scott Allison with us and I shall count on him heavily," Clark added.

LEWIS SCHARFF completed his lacrosse eligibility in 1980 during which he earned first team NCAA Division III All-America rating. He was also honored when named to the South team and performed well in the annual all-star game at Lexington, Va. Lewis led SSC scorers in his sophomore and senior years and was co-captain in 1979. Of Scharff, Coach Clark states: "I have seen Lewis mature and develop into a fine player. He will handle the jayvee team in its games as well as help with the varsity."

DAVE BATEMAN, a volunteer coach, like Scharff, has also completed his eligibility in 1980. Coach Clark says Bateman "typifies the player who attains high success by plain hard work, dedication and by taking instruction. By constant practice he developed one of the finest outside midfield shots I have seen in the game." He will assist with the jayvee team in its games. Dave was third-team NCAA Division III all-American player in 1980.

PROSPECTUS

Following a rebuilding season (7-7) in 1979, Coach Charley Clark led his 1980 team to a highly successful 12-5 record in 1980—the best since Coach Andy Jones' team went 12-3 in 1975.

The Sea Gulls opened with a 25-9 victory over the Liberty Lacrosse Club of Baltimore but then bowed consecutively to Hobart, UMBC and Loyola.

Down 1-3, the Sea Gulls took on Air Force Academy on the U.S. Naval Academy astro-turf and licked this Division I team handily, 21-8. Victories over Denison and Ohio Wesleyan on the home field put the record at 4-3. Roanoke took the Salisbury team to even the record at 4-4, but from this point a string of seven regular season victories was registered for a 11-4 standing and No. 4 ranking among approximately 100 Division III teams.

For the fourth consecutive year Salisbury was invited to play in the NCAA Division III national championship series, seeded fourth and paired with the fifth ranked team, St. Lawrence University. In one of its best games ever, the Sea Gulls won 15-11 in a very even contest except for the second quarter in which Salisbury, down 3-4, tied the game at 4-4 and then scored five unanswered goals to lead at the half, 9-5. Thus, for the second year in a row Salisbury won its opening round game. The victory paired the Sea Gulls with Hobart in the semi-finals. The Statesmen of Hobart, perennial Division II-III power, and seeded No. 1 in the championship series, proved too strong for the Marylanders scoring a 21-5 win.

A good 1980 fall practice in which scrimmage victories were won over a Baltimore club team, St. Mary's College and Division I teams, UMBC and Delaware, plus good performances against Division I powers Johns Hopkins, Navy and Maryland, gives high hopes for 1981 despite a partial rebuilding job in process.

The starting attack of tri-captain Kevin Wynne, Bryan Rogers and Mike Bracken is intact, with strong support from alternates Scott Spear, Brian Wynne and John Moorhead. Midfield candidates are led by tri-captain Glenn Norris, a rugged and versatile player, plus Donny Codignotto, Mike Mulligan and Gary Starkey (the latter two moved from the attack), Bo Feaga (top face-off man), Mike Miller, Mike Dovey, Rick Sawicki and Tim George. Newcomers Drew Haugh, a junior transfer from Richmond, and freshmen Ron Clark, Jim Huelskamp and Jim Hawes all demonstrated good ability in the fall and Coach Clark expects rapid development and fine contributions from them.

Defense, problem area in 1979 and 1980, may be the most improved department in 1981. Tri-captain Craig Conover, a heady team leader, is back after missing all of last season. Mark Fowler, former middie and capable also in the goal if ever needed, will provide speed, quickness and fine clearing ability. Dick Abel, sophomore who did not play in 1980, was most impressive with his hustle and ability last fall and is counted upon heavily. Ranking with these three is Russ Williams, senior, whose class schedule kept him from full involvement in 1980. Pressing these men are Greg Diven, freshman from Sparrows Point, Greg and Val Eshleman, and Barry Burkhardt (former attackman, out much of 1980 with leg injuries).

Bucky Dennig is the leading goalie, with Mike Sparr expected to contest strongly for his old starting position. Kevin Truffer and Jim Ingram have high school experience at goal and will be contenders.
